 29

1 project, subject to the Master Labor Agreement. AEI Williams also began its monthly
 2 reporting and payment of fringe benefit contributions to the Carpenters Trusts.

3 3.11 In 2018, AEI Williams was selected for a routine audit of the company's 4 payroll and related business records in order to determine whether it had complied with its
 5 obligations to properly report and pay fringe benefit contributions to the Carpenters Trusts.
 6 The audit covered the period November 1, 2017 through September 30, 2018 for all projects

 10 AEI Williams owed the Carpenters Trusts $2,346.95 in underreported/unpaid fringe benefit
 11 contributions on the Wilson Residence Closet Addition project, plus additional amounts for 12 liquidated damages, and interest due to non-payment.

13 3.13 On January 5, 2019, the Carpenters Trusts' administration office provided
 14 AEI Williams will a copy of the Audit Report and gave the company thirty days in which to 15 review and respond to the report, and object to the Audit Report's conclusions if AEI
 16 Williams wished. AEI Williams did not respond.

17 3.14 This matter was then referred to counsel for collection. On February 20, 18 2019, AEI Williams was provided with another copy of the Audit Report and given two 19 weeks in which to respond. AEI Williams did not respond.

20 3.15 On April 8, 2019, the Carpenters Trusts sent a written final demand to AEI
 21 Williams seeking payment for the amounts listed in the Audit Report. AEI Williams did not 22 respond.

1           3.16 As of the date of this complaint, AEI Williams owes the Carpenters Trusts
 2 $2,820.64 as reflected in the Audit Report, consisting of $2,346.95 in fringe benefit
 3 contributions, $281.63 in liquidated damages, $192.06 in interest, plus additional amounts
